

In looking over our hat sales for the past month we find a very gratifying increase in volume.

And yet we are not satisfied. We are ambitious to double our present hat business.

And there's no reason why we should not do so. The best hats made in America are here and the prices are as low as New York's or Boston's.

Wants to Ship Trout Fry By Parcel Post To Harney County

The civil government class at The lake, in Harney county, writes to Secretary of State Olcott to find out if fish spawn can be shipped by parcel post to the Harney county streams. The writer states that The lake is 100 miles from a railroad and that it would be impossible to meet the train to receive some by parcel post that they would like to populate the creeks with fish. Lots of fine fresh water but no fish appears to leave something lacking in that community. Mr. Olcott referred their inquiry to the state game warden, Carl Shoemaker.

The class also asked numerous questions about the names and number of state officers, election laws, school lands, forest reserves, West Point cadets, senators and representatives in congress, and domestic science and agricultural demonstrations which were answered by the state secretary who furnished the class with a copy of the blue book which contains a fund of valuable information about the state of Oregon.

BENJAMIN TO WORK OUT IN SALEM FOR MOOSE SMOKER

Portland Boxers Will Invade Capital City Tomorrow for Monday's Smoker

Joe Benjamin, who boxes Al McNeal in Portland tonight as a top liner at a smoker to be held at the Rose City Athletic club, will come to Salem tomorrow for a workout at Klett's for his bout Monday with Billy Nelson, of Spokane. The boys will work out at about 4 p. m. and the Salem fans will have their first chance to see Benjamin in action.

Nelson is said to be in the pink of condition for his coming battle at the smoker to be held at the Moose hall with Benjamin and the two boys should put up a lively mix. Nelson has never appeared in this city before although some of the Salem sports have seen Benjamin work in Portland in the smokers held in that city.

Bernstein and Fredericks will be on for a special event and Ike Cohen and "Whitney" Campbell, of Portland, will finish the semi-windup. Cohen has been boxing on this coast for a number of years and has the reputation of being an iron man. At any rate he sheds punches like a duck's back should rain and none of the near champions have been able to hurt him with their sledge hammer swings. Cohen is not as fast as Billy Mascott, for instance, but if the other fellow comes near to one of Cohen's punches something is likely to drop. Ike makes up in comedy what he lacks in cleverness and he is one of the most popular preliminary fighters in Portland and no card is complete without Ike as a curtain raiser.

Boatright and Rocky Williams, two local heavies, will also put on an exhibition. Each bout will be for eight rounds.

Registration Greater Than It Was Two Years Ago

The registration in this state for the primaries will be about 10,000 in excess of that of 1914 according to the estimate of the secretary of state department. In 1914 239,001 voters registered for the primaries and it is estimated that at least 240,000 voters will have signed up when the final count is completed which will be in a few days. In 1914 a total of 136,282 republicans were registered and to date the books show that this number has increased to 161,000. At the general election, due largely to the interest in the prohibition question, a total of 305,500 votes were cast.

Woodmen to Erect Handsome Building

The spring building fever is now on in Salem, as today the Woodmen of the World announced that tomorrow they expect to close up a deal for the property on the northwest corner of Church and Chemeketa streets, and at once begin the erection of a Woodman fraternal building at an estimated cost of $15,000.

The ground space is 50 by 160 feet, and the building to be erected will cover the entire lot. It will be financed by the local Woodman lodge.

The first floor of the building will have two large halls in order that the Woodmen of the World may hold their meetings at the same time the ladies' auxiliary is in session. The double entrance will lead into two large ante rooms, and adjoining these are special degree team rooms for wardrobes and the preparation of candidates.

The entire lower floor is so arranged that it can be thrown into one large room for special events. The banquet room will be in the basement with fully equipped kitchen. The banquet room will have a seating capacity of 900.

Other parts of the building will be fitted up with club rooms, and there will have a special entrance, separate from the main entrance. Two large committee rooms have also been provided for.

The building will be used exclusively for fraternal purposes, and already applications have been received from other lodges. It will be so arranged that the club room privileges of the members will not be interfered with when other lodges are in session.

Splendid Easter Services at Auburn

At the Auburn Sunday school a beautiful and appropriate Easter program was given by the class of young ladies, organized under the name of "Faithful Workers," with Mrs. A. Williams as teacher.

The program opened with a song by the school, followed by scriptures reading and prayer. After a chorus "King of the Ages," and recitation, "Sir Robin," came the special feature, a cantata "The Beautiful City," which consisted of one inspiring round of song, answering song, interspersed with recitations. The part of "The Pilgrim" was perhaps the most difficult, but was well rendered by Miss Josephine Troy. Another feature in the program was

Suffragettes To Be Here Saturday Evening

The Suffrage Envoy, the special bearing a party of about 30 prominent suffrage women from the east, will arrive in Salem on the Southern Pacific at 8 o'clock Saturday evening. Arrangements have been made to meet these prominent women, by a committee composed of Mrs. A. N. Bush, Mrs. Frank Rosequest, Mrs. Frank Southwick and Mrs. G. P. Bishop. Autos will await the visitors and they will be taken directly to the House of Representatives.

An impressive "Song Dialogue," entitled "Jesus and Shall It Ever Be" Solo, "Praise," Dialogue, by three young ladies.

In behalf of the class their president, Miss Anna Gille, presented to their teacher, Mrs. A. Williams, a bouquet of carnations, a token of loving esteem and an Easter greeting, which was a complete surprise to her. The room was tastefully decorated with evergreens and Easter lilies.

Cantata. "The Pilgrim," Josephine Troy. "The Tempter," Anna Gille. "The Teacher," Mrs. Williams. "The Messengers," The Misses Helen Williams, Byrl Bond, Myrtle Mathis, Lucile Lattimer and Lillian Olson. Solo, duet, and choruses, Miss Elma Grinnaw, Mrs. Williams and the Misses Josephine Troy, Julia Olson, Eita Satter and Stella Terry. Dialogue, The Misses Alice Mathy, Helen Williams and Byrl Bond. Recitation, Miss Flavella Haynes. Solo, Miss Nelly Brey.

where they will be served with loganberry juice, given a reception and made to feel at home in the capital of the state.

Although no special program of speaking has been arranged, it is expected that Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont and the beautiful New York lawyer, Mrs. Inez Milholland Boissevain, will be included among the speakers. Also Mrs. Harriot Stanton Blatch, the daughter of Elizabeth Cady Stanton. Mrs. Blatch is a forceful speaker and has been active in the suffrage work in New York City.

Governor Withycombe and members of the Commercial club will also assist in the entertaining. The object of these visitors, the militant arm of the suffrage movement in the east, is to urge the western women, now that they have suffrage, to come to the aid of those in the east who are denied it, and to urge the congressmen from the west to support the Susan B. Anthony amendment for national suffrage.

While the addresses are being made at the house of representatives, the dining car of the travellers will be stocked with loganberry juice in order that they will have something out of the usual in which to remember the capital of the state. Following the addresses and reception, the visitors will be taken to their special car. They will appear at the public library in Portland Sunday morning, and after a visit to Seattle, will start on their homeward journey.
